Never Give Up

Facing Addiction and breaking free is a tough road for an addict to face. But they must “Never Give Up”, because their families need them and God is waiting for them to say, “I need help.” Let’s pray for them because it is a rough road to walk.

Here are some facts about addiction, and a prayer of a little girl. Out of two million Americans who die each year, a little over one-quarter (520,000) die from a cause related to drugs and alcohol abuse. How sad.

Marie’s Prayer to God ... every night 10-year-old Marie asks God to help her father stop drinking and falling on the floor. I’m so frightened ever since my mommy went away with another man who helped her with her drug abuse. I’m so lonely and afraid. Please God help me. Amen.

Marie is now 21 years of age and is studying to be a psychologist. She wants to devote her life to the addicts. She visits her father’s grave frequently but has no knowledge of her mother except she died. How sad!

The road to recovery begins with the words “I’ve got a problem”. This simple step is also the most difficult on the long arduous journey back. But with God’s help, anything is possible.

Addicts need help. What we want them to know is that God loves them and is waiting for them to come home. Let’s pray for them, and hope that one day they will find a way to come home to God. The best advise you can give them is “Don’t Give Up”, “You are needed” and “there’s a great deal of help waiting for you.”

Let’s all pray that one day the Addict will pray, “Today, be with me and help me to learn once again that true peace and hope are found only in You.”

Please remember, “Never Give Up”.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Congratulations to the following couples who made their sacramental vows by convalidating their marriages thus receiving sacramental graces!

Rodrigo Lourenco de Araujo & Stephanie Bassaler

Brenton Dori & Marta Pages

Pedro Hernandez & Maria Cardenas

Jorge Garcia & Maria Alvarez

We applaud these couples for putting themselves right with God and the Church. Their sacramental marriages bring many benefits: a bond between the two spouses created by God Himself, so strong that only death can dissolve it; each of the spouses becomes in a special way the pathway to heaven for his or her spouse. They now can participate fully in the sacramental life of the Church.

Congratulations to our candidates who enter into full communion with the Catholic Church! This significant step marks their full integration into the life of the Church, and they now actively participate in the sacraments.
