GOD IS WAITING

Johnny, a seven-year-old, walking with his mother were passing St. Clare's, their parish church. Johnny said to his mother, "Mommy, let's go in and see God. He must be all alone because I see no one going in." Mommy agreed and when they entered, the young boy was right. God was all alone but now He had company.

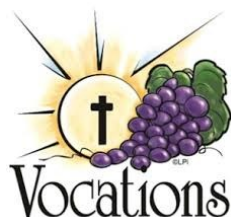

God needs more than company. He truly needs vocations to the priesthood, sisterhood and brotherhood to continue building His Kingdom of God on earth. We are all aware that churches and schools are closing because there are no priests, sisters and brothers to staff them. We need vocations to the religious life.

How do you know that you have a vocation to the religious life? Believe me when I tell you that there will not be a spirited tap on your shoulder, or a voice calling out to you to serve. What you may feel is a desire to serve God in helping others, or a feeling that you love God and you are faithful to attending Mass, the saying of prayers, or you love to help people. I have heard priests say that they got their vocation in books that they read. One priest told me he got his vocation from watching his grandfather go to Mass every day of his life.

Many people have a great desire to serve God, but never do it. Why? Because they didn't know what to do, and as they grew older realized they made a mistake.

If you feel you have a vocation – please call a priest and talk it over. He will guide you and help you. You have got to answer, "God's call". If you don't – you will never know if God called you.

Let's all pray for vocations. God needs you in His field to continue His work on Earth. "God is Waiting – Please Answer His Call."

HYMNS FOR MASS

O Lord, I am not worthy (p. 353)
Psalm: 146 - Praise the Lord, my soul!
Make us true servants (p. 289)
Joyful, joyful, we adore you (p. 299)

PRIESTHOOD SUNDAY

Sunday, September 28th

Priesthood Sunday seeks to reaffirm the priesthood of Jesus Christ and its central place in the life of the Church. This day also specifically honors priests, without whom the Holy Sacraments could not be conferred, for a single day out of the 365 days of the year during which they tirelessly serve their parishes.

Join us in praying for our priests,
Fr. Jose Alvarez and Fr. Ireneusz Ekiert, praising God for their courage and generosity.
